Entered According to the Act of Congress in the year 1884, by

R. F. HILL,

In the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.

PREFACE.

The toils and duties of our soldier life are over. As the object of the Grand Army of the Republic is to preserve its memories, not for the purpose of keeping alive the animosities of the War, but as an ever living influence for good in all our hearts, in a true soldierly spirit of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty; so the Grand Army Memorial Record is designed to aid in collecting, preserving and perpetuating the Military History of each Grand Army Comrade.

The Grand Army of the Republic is distinctly the representative of the rank and file of the army of 1861–5. It is here that private soldiers are found in the majority, and it remains for them to furnish the facts and material from which the future historian may write for our posterity, a truthful and complete history of the Great Civil War of America. To fully accomplish the design and objects of this work requires,

First—A general adoption of a uniform plan, by all Grand Army Posts.

Second.—A hearty co-operation in a true soldierly spirit, which includes, devotion to truth, duty and discipline.

Third—A thorough appreciation and comprehension of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of the truths and principles it teaches.

Each Post procuring a Record Book, should adopt suitable By-Laws expressive of the object sought, and providing in substance.

First—The permanent appointment of a Post Historian, who should carefully and truthfully cause to be filled out the "Memorial Record Book" of the Post, by indexing the names of the members, assigning one Lithographed page to each Comrade, corresponding if possible with his number on the Post Descriptive List, and inserting therein his Military History in brief. Each Lithographed page when so filled should be subscribed by the Comrade named therein. If dead, his record should be certified as correct, by the Historian, according to his best information and belief. By a vote of the Post, at a regular meeting, a record of which should be kept in the Adjutant's Minutes, an additional page, pages or portion of a page in the Appendix of the Memorial Record Book, may be assigned to any Comrade, in which to continue his Military History, when the space in the Lithographed page is insufficient; and a reference made thereto in the Index, and on the Lithographed page as follows: See Appendix, Page..... (The person after whom the Post is named and Soldiers and Sailors whose graves are decorated by the Post on Memorial Day, may also be assigned a page in the Record by vote of the Post.)

Second—Upon the death of a Comrade in good standing, the Post should hold Memorial services as prescribed in the Ritual. When the Commander calls for the Military Record of the deceased, it should be read by the Adjutant from the "Memorial Record Book." Memorial Resolutions, when adopted, should be inserted in their appropriate place on the Lithographed page assigned to the deceased Comrade. If too long for this space, then by vote of the Post additional space may be assigned in the Appendix, and a record thereof kept and references made thereto as above provided. Whenever a Comrade's death is the result, either directly or indirectly of the disability for which he draws a pension, that fact should always be stated in the Memorial Resolutions. The Post surgeon should be a member of the Committee on Resolutions. A copy of the "Memorial Record" page or pages so completed, and signed by the Commander and Adjutant, should be sent to the widow of the deceased, or to the family. The Commander and Adjutant should in all cases not otherwise provided for, certify to the correctness of the transcript or copies furnished.

Third.—The last surviving member of the Post should be constituted and created a Trustee, for the purpose of exercising the care and having the custody of, the "Grand Army Memorial Record Book." It should be his duty, and he should be empowered, to carefully and faithfully deposit said "Memorial Record Book" in the Public Library of the place where the Post is located. Provided however, that in case there should be none, or he does not deem it a suitable depository, then he should deposit said Book in the State Library at the State Capitol, subject to the care and control of the Commander-in-Chief of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic Provided further, That in case said trustee be so ordered, he should cause said Memorial Record Book, to be deposited in the office of the Librarian of Congress, to become the property of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and unconditionally subject to its control.

It is by this means that the Military History of each Comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic can be procured, preserved and perpetuated, and an authentic record preserved, of the widows and orphans of our late Comrades.

It is hoped and expected that Congressional and State Legislation will make these Memorial Record Books documentary evidence in certain cases, and of certain facts therein contained, and that certified copies of the Record may be accepted in the courts and governmental departments, as prima facie evidence of the facts therein alleged. Great care and mathematical accuracy should be observed in the matter of names, dates, localities and events.

The limited space for the Military Record on the Lithographed page, is designed only for a list of battles and engagements in which the Comrade participated; when and where wounded; when and where imprisoned (if a prisoner,); and any incidents of particular interest.

The Burial Record is designed not only for the deceased Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, but for those whose graves we have been accustomed to decorate on each Memorial Day.

The Grand Army Memorial Record is respectfully dedicated to the Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Author.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Gen Order No. 3.

Head Quarters Sixth Regt Mich Heavy Artillery, Morganza June 20th 1864

The Death of 2nd Lieut James B Brainerd of Co. H. Must be fittingly Recorded.

In the morning of life amidst the bright Sunlight of hope he has left us he died far from his Native Country, but in house of devout Sisters of Charity Who, though of a faith and Nation different from our own, did all for him that his nearest Kindred could have done. He had often been spared by the bullet & the shell whose death seemed almost Certain; in the deadly Breach of the Port Hudson citadel; on the Slaughter field and when his Company brought off the abandoned Massachusetts Cannon, in the face of the Charging foe at Baton Rouge; his time had not Come. He never Shrunk from danger, never Murmured at hard life or toil. He was Ever among the foremost in every peril, and the most willing in every duty. He had no Enmity in him and there was none against him. He Lived a long Life in a short time. He had won the confidence of every man of his Regiment. All Knew his Courage and Energy; and the honest Straightforwardness of his Nature. Had he Lived three Score glorious years in the Sins and miseries of getting Rich, those years would soon have passed and would have been unworthy of Comparison with his Short Life which was all for Honour. The whole regiment are Mourners for him, and will never forget to honor him. His Kindred for generations may well Boast of his Name
